

RURAL CHILD HUNGER SUMMIT 2022

REBOOT | RECONNECT | REDESIGN: CREATING EQUITABLE SOLUTIONS FOR RURAL CHILDREN

The 2022 Rural Child Hunger Summit, co-presented by Save the Children and No Kid Hungry, highlighted best practices to address rural child hunger and convened partners to collaborate on innovative solutions. Sessions focused on unpacking the latest research, promising policy solutions, and the role of schools, community-based organizations, and local leaders as partners in the fight to end hunger in rural communities. Speakers included the Secretary of Agriculture Thomas Vilsack and Secretary of Education Miguel Cardona, Food Nutrition Directors from 8 different states, Sara Bleich and Stacy Dean from the USDA, and partners and staff from Save the Children and No Kid Hungry.

Read the Full Agenda Here

Summit Recordings and Slide Decks:

Day One - April 27th 10:30am - 4pm ET

- 10:30- 11:15 am ET Keynote Address- Education and Child Nutrition Partnership and Future

Workshop Sessions

- 11:30 am - 12:30 pm ET - [\[You\]th Make the Difference: How Youth are Transforming the Food Justice Movement](#)
- 1 pm - 2pm ET - Technology & Innovation: Finding Digital Connections for Rural Communities
- 3pm - 4 pm ET - Raising Rural Voices: Discovering Permanent Solutions to Improve Access

Day Two - April 28th 10:30am - 4pm ET

- 10:30 - 11:30 am ET - Keynote Address - Equity in Child Nutrition and Rural Communities

Workshop Sessions

- 11:30 am - 12:30 pm ET - Going the Extra Mile: Overcoming Transportation Challenges and Other Barriers to Nourishing Food in Rural Communities
- 1 pm - 2 pm ET - Sustainable Program Design: Utilizing Community Strength to Build Effective Programming
- 2:30 - 3:30 pm ET - Navigating Supply Chain Disruptions: Finding Innovative Solutions During Challenging Times