Together, we're giving children the chance to experience a better tomorrow!

I hope you'll be as inspired as I am by the difference you help make possible in Bolivia through your support.

Whether we're working to overcome the ongoing impacts of COVID-19, the dangers of war and conflict, and the devastating impacts of climate change — or ensuring every child has equal access to the future they deserve — your generosity helps make a better tomorrow possible!

The successes you'll read about inside are proof. Our partnerships are as strong as ever, and more lasting change is happening community-wide than ever before.

But even after all our successes, the need still continues. That's why we're so grateful each day for your support.

On behalf of our staff in Bolivia and all of us at Save the Children — thank you!

With gratitude,

Janti Soeripto
President & CEO

Suzy wants to change the world ...
you will help make it possible!

Eighteen-year-old Suzy* recently graduated from high school and is preparing to study communications at the local university.

Suzy remembers, however, that it was her experience with Save the Children that helped open her eyes to the potential for her life — and her future. Participating in the Adolescent Program, Suzy excelled in her leadership classes and learned about entrepreneurship.

Through this program, Suzy discovered her confidence. And she's passionate about reaching other young people with the encouragement they need to succeed.

When she's not studying, or with her friends, you can find Suzy exploring the world of dance and artistic expression.

Your contributions, combined with those of other sponsors, make it possible for Suzy and other children to achieve their goals. Thank you for believing in a better future for children worldwide.

"The Save the Children program made me feel important."

– Suzy

IMPACT YOUR SUPPORT MADE POSSIBLE

Community Health

1,500 community health care workers and providers in Cochabamba were trained in infant and adolescent care to improve their ability to detect and prevent malnutrition.

Early Childhood Development

2,286 children successfully benefited from early childhood education programs in Cochabamba, increasing their abilities in social and literacy skills that will help prepare them to enroll in school.

Adolescents' Development

7,000 teens were reached throughout Cochabamba with sexual and reproductive health resources for the prevention of sexually transmitted diseases and teen pregnancy.

Child Protection

10,000 parents and caregivers were trained on "positive parenting" and how to provide a nurturing learning environment for their children at home. In addition, they received training that emphasized gender equality.

More Important Results!

You made so much good possible last year. Here are a few more important results:

5,000 children received critical medical attention, evaluation and treatment for acute malnutrition.

10,000 children and their families received access to clean, safe water for drinking and cleaning, preventing the spread of diseases.

421 health workers were trained and equipped to recognize, diagnose and effectively treat preventable childhood diseases.

TEAM TOMORROW

Learn more about making a better tomorrow possible for children ... starting today!

Eleven-year-old Nisha in Nepal is no stranger to the devastating effects of climate change.

Extreme heat followed by unseasonable rains spoiled her family's crops and diminished their only food source. Nisha and her family struggled tremendously.

"My parents had to buy expensive rice because our crops were destroyed. They were unable to provide necessary school supplies and a uniform for me. It is difficult to go to school without the proper uniform, pens and supplies for class."

Thanks to supporters like you, Nisha is benefiting greatly from programs that protect her rights, health and education — giving her equal opportunity to experience a better tomorrow and a brighter future.
